The image displays a guitar tab for the song 'Don't Stop Believin'' by Journey, arranged for two guitars. It is divided into two main sections: 'Chords' and 'Riff'. The 'Chords' section consists of four measures, each with a chord name above it: G, G, D, D, Em, Em, C, and C. The guitar strings are represented by six horizontal lines. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 0-3. The 'Riff' section follows, also in four measures. It features a melodic line on the top string with various frets and techniques like triplets and slurs. Below the riff line, there are four bar-shaped symbols, each containing two vertical lines, representing a specific rhythmic or harmonic pattern. The entire piece concludes with a double bar line.
